

1811 German Coast Uprising

Answer Sheet

1. No, it was not an isolated event. There was a successful revolt in Haiti on August 22, 1792 against the French monarchy of the island and the American Revolution of 1776.
2. The Haitian revolt was led by Toussaint L'Ouverture and it was successful. There were 100,000 of the island's 300,000 blacks and 24,000 of the 40,000 whites killed.
3. He began to formulate a plan modeled after the Haitian revolt and began recruiting enslaved from other plantations for the cause.
4. Grande Hyacinthe, Gros Lindor, Petit Lindor, Jasmin, Jacques, Jason
5. The revolt began at the Andry Plantation where Andry's son was killed, Andry was injured. Andry took his wife across the Mississippi River. Charles opened the ammunition storeroom and found it empty.
6. About 27 plantations.
7. They stopped to rest along the Mississippi River levee near the home of Charles Paquet (the builder of Destrehan Plantation).
8. Fires were set on the Plantation's of James Brown, Alexander Labranche, August Meulion and Pierre Reine.
9. Marchers were camped near the Jefferson Parish line and the militia attacked them at 4 am on January 10 near the J. Fortier Plantation. Also, Andry and soldiers attacked fleeing marchers moving upriver on Jan. 11.

10. One trial was held at Destrehan Plantation and others in New Orleans and St. John Parish. The men found guilty by the tribunal were taken to their home plantation to be executed by firing squad.

11. Casualties included 21 enslaved killed in the revolt.

45 tried and executed

22 held in prison

27 missing

12. Dominique, enslaved person belonging to Bernard Bernoudy, alerted Bernoudy of the danger approaching. Bernoudy sent Dominique to New Orleans to alert other owners along the way.

13. Gros Lindor & Petit Lindor were executed. Jessamine (Jasmin) was executed by hanging on the plantation of Barthalemy McCarty in New Orleans and his body exposed. Thelemague died fighting at the Fortier Plantation.

14. Opinion

15. Opinion

16. Opinion